CARNAGE NOW
IN VLADIVOSTOK;
MANY ARE KILLED

Reign of Terror Three Days and Mobs Still Rule the Seaport.

TROOPS JOIN RIOTERS.
People Fearing Massacre Occupy Twenty-four Ships in Harbor.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 14.—The upheaval in Russia following the promulgation of the reform manifesto, has now reached Vladivostok and Yensieisk and other extreme points of the Empire. Confirmation has been obtained from various sources of the reported uprising at Vladivostok, where the condition of affairs is quite critical. Many persons have been killed and the foreigners have taken refuge on the ships in the harbor. Many public buildings, stores and houses have been pillaged and set fire to by the mob.

The American Embassy has received from Consul Greener at Vladivostok details of the outbreak, which began Sunday afternoon immediately after the departure of the Russian armored cruisers Gromoboi and Rossia. The people who had gathered in great numbers in the streets became excited by inflammatory speeches. Many soldiers and sailors were also in an angry mood, having expected to go home with the squadrons.

The mob began to break windows and pillage and in the evening set fire to the theatre, the Golden Horn Hotel, to several blocks of Chinese buildings in the northern part of the city and to the officers' residences and other buildings in the eastern quarter. The fires burned all night. Seventy buildings were consumed.

Troops were summoned to restore order, and it was the shooting by these which caused the deaths of many.

Just before the American Consul telegraphed to-day the commandant of the fortress of Vladivostok, assisted by priests and the leaders of the workmen's organizations, addressed the mob urging them to keep the peace, but the Consul said he feared the attempt would be in vain.

Mr. Greener added that twenty-four merchant vessels in the harbor were now crowded with inhabitants. The Consul was on board a steamer when he sent his dispatch, and he expects to remain there.

CZAR, IN FEAR,
SHUNS CAPITAL.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 14.—L. P. M. Emperor Nicholas and the Russian Court will not come to St. Petersburg this winter. A short time ago it was announced that the Emperor was about to return to the Winter Palace, in an annex of which Count Witte has installed himself, but the Emperor has now decided to go from Peterhof back to Tsarskoe-Selo, where he has been living for almost two years with the exception of the last months spent at Peterhof.

Except on the occasion of the ceremony of blessing the waters last January, when the Emperor narrowly escaped death, owing to a mysterious charge of grape being fired in the direction of the Imperial party by a calculating battery, he has not stepped inside the Winter Palace for over eighteen months.

His decision not to come to the capital is regarded as unfortunate, not only for its moral effect, but because it keeps him surrounded by court influences and out of close, immediate touch with Count Witte, who at the present time would have daily, almost hourly, conferences with the Emperor.

Members of the Emperor's entourage have strongly advised against the Emperor's leaving the capital this winter, recalling to the Emperor's mind not without effect the fatal results of Louis XVI's retreating to leave Versailles and place himself at the mercy of the populace of Paris in 1793.

100 KILLED IN
NEW RUSSIAN RIOT.

GIRL RIDER AT SHOW NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH.

Miss Belle Beach Unseated While Trying to Take a Hedge.

FINALLY MAKES LEAP.
Hackneys Draw Big Crowd of Society Folk to the Garden.

In the preliminary judging of hunters in the Corinthian Class at the Horse Show to-day, Miss Belle Beach, the famous young horsewoman, had a narrow escape from death while riding Mrs. Thomas P. Lindsay's brown gelding, Chapple Lee. Several of Sidney Holloway's jumpers had been running amuck and plunging wildly in the neighborhood of Miss Beach's mount. When she got up Chapple Lee had red in his eye. She gave him the whip and started him to take off the five-barred hedge. He went at it with a rush, but at the guide rail almost turned a somersault, swerving off and plunging into the judges' stand.

Miss Beach lost her seat, and was falling under the animal's feet, when the skirt of her dress caught on the pommel and saved her. Several grooms caught the horse and held up the rider. She was lifted to the ground, strode out of the ring, and sent a groom for a new saddle.

She mounted Chapple Lee again and got an ovation when she started the horse at the fence again, lashing him fiercely. She got him over, though he carried two rails with him. Then she sent him over the stone hedge, and repeated the performance three times until she had the high-spirited animal well in hand.

THINK THAT CIDER CAUSED DEATH.

One Laborer Dies and Another Becomes Ill After Drinking It.

Michael Jeannetti, a laborer, of El-Hot avenue and Morris street, the Bronx, died to-day of toxemia, caused, Coroner Berry thinks, by cider which the man drank last night at the store of Manna Bros., Van Cortlandt and Jerome avenue, on his way home from work. George Scott, another laborer, who drank the cider with Jeannetti, is seriously ill at his home in Gunhill road.

The cider was drawn from a keg and constituted the drink. Both men became ill soon after drinking it, but neither called in a physician. No ill effects were reported by any others who drank the cider previous to yesterday. Coroner Berry has summoned the cider manufacturer, a Mount Vernon firm, to appear at an inquest to-morrow.

THANKS GEN. PORTER.

Commending his efforts in recovering the bones of John Paul Jones, the Board of Aldermen to-day adopted a set of resolutions, which will be engraved and forwarded to Gen. Porter.

any drastic measures, and consequently the people fear to leave their homes after nightfall. The theatres are open, but are deserted. The University opened to-day.

A number of policemen have resigned and it is openly asserted that they secured sufficient plunder during the disturbances to make them independent.

ALDERMEN ASK
ROOSEVELT'S AID.

By unanimous vote of the Board of Aldermen to-day the following resolution, presented by Alderman Harburg, was adopted:

Whereas, For many weeks past daily reports have been received of appalling atrocities inflicted on the Hebrews in many parts of Russia, by which thousands of all ages and both sexes have been and are being murdered, robbed of their all, innocent victims of an ignorant and superstitious peasantry, whose crimes are condoned or even encouraged by the authorities who should preserve order;

Resolved, That this Board of Aldermen desires to express its detestation of these medieval savageries; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this preamble and resolutions, duly authenticated, be transmitted to the President of the United States, so prominently distinguished as a successful apostle of peace, praying him to exert his wonderful influence, even though unwarranted by diplomatic precedent, in every possible way, to cause a cessation of these abominable cruelties, which are a shock to humanity and civilization.

AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, N. Y., NOV. 14.—Real winter racing was enjoyed by the crowd at Aqueduct this afternoon. It was the first frosty day of the meeting, and it kept the crowd on a hustle for warm corners. This was the last day but one of the meeting, and there was a splendid attendance in spite of the fact that the card was far from attractive.

The stake race was the Beldame Handicap for two-year-olds over the five furlong course. Only a fair lot were entered. The track was fast. Water Wing made the running, in the first event, followed by Water Tank and Tambeau. They held their order to the stretch, where Tambeau closed and taking the lead, won by a length from Water Tank, who beat Water Wing a length for the place. Tambeau had no speed the last time out.

Shaw on Long Shot.

Mamie Worth went to the front soon after the start in the second, made all the running and won by a head from Pioneer, who was second all the way. Ormonde's Right, finishing strong, was a length away. Tommy Waddell, who beat Dreamer away off yesterday, was favorite, but did not have his speed.

Amberjack Quit Cold.

Amberjack cut out the running in the third, followed by Macbeth, Palette and Sindale. They raced with scraps of daylight, but in the stretch, where Graceful won, Amberjack quit and Macbeth took the lead. Sindale then closed strong, but could not reach Macbeth, the latter winning by a head from Palette, who beat Palette two lengths for the place.

Saddle Girth Broke.

Backers of Listless, a 60 to 1 shot, will have a star hand luck story to tell for the rest of their lives. Listless went to the front at the start, making the running, was a length in front, a few jumps from the finish. Suddenly Springer made a lunge and Listless tumbled across the wire. A jump later Springer fell off and Flip Flap got up in time to win. Zlenap was third. Listless could not have lost but for the breaking of his saddle girth.

Graceful Easy Winner.
